

DGA's Expert Services team has vast experience across most industry sectors. Collectively, they have practised in all major global jurisdictions providing advice, expert opinion, written reports and oral testimony in connection with time and money claims.

David Gibson
Quantum Expert, CEO
david.gibson@dga-group.com

David is an experienced quantum expert with over 35 years' experience. He has had appointments in Europe, Middle East, Asia and Australia and has been cross examined. He specialises in major civil engineering projects such as tunnels, highways, rail, water and oil and gas with typical project values in excess of USD 2bn.

David Aldridge
Delay Expert
david.aldrige@dga-group.com

David has extensive dispute resolution experience. He is regularly appointed as Independent Expert in relation to EOT, delay, and disruption claims, and project management disputes. He has given oral evidence and been cross-examined in numerous UK and International Litigation and Arbitration cases.

Richard Jenkinson
Quantum Expert
richard.jenkinson@dga-group.com

Richard has 36 years' experience providing commercial and strategic management for contractors and Employers. He is regularly appointed to act as an independent Expert including giving written and oral evidence in adjudications, arbitrations and expert determination.

Jim Bourke
Quantum Expert
jim.bourke@dga-group.com

Jim's experience extends over some 40 years, providing contractual advice and acting in Expert appointments through all forms of formal dispute resolution in the UK and internationally. His knowledge and skills were gained by working across many construction sectors representing employers, main contractors and supply chain organisations.

Stuart Andrew
Quantum Expert
stuart.andrew@dga-group.com

Stuart is a Chartered Quantity Surveyor who is a Fellow of the RICS and CICES. He is qualified as a construction adjudicator. His experience includes major build and civils projects on JCT, NEC and FIDIC contracts covering build, power and MEICA. He has been appointed as expert in matters of quantum and professional conduct.

Scott Milner
Quantum Expert
scott.milner@dga-group.com

Scott has experience in major building and civil engineering across many sectors. He has been appointed as quantum expert in matters relating to the reasonable cost of the works and/ or cost of rectification of defects. He is regularly involved in the assessment of change, damages and compensation events. al arbitration and court cases.

Jon Youl
Quantum Expert
jon.youl@dga-group.com

Jon is a highly experienced Quantity Surveyor and Expert Witness. He has a broad range of experience as a lead Expert Witness working for employers, contractors and sub contractors with a specific emphasis on mechanical and electrical related issues.

Karen Wenham
Delay Expert
karen.wenham@dga-group.com

Karen is an internationally recognised delay expert, and has been given oral evidence in litigation and tribunal proceedings in Australia, the U.A.E. and New Zealand. Karen has a strong focus on the use of data analytics in forensic delay and disruption analysis.

John Donnelly
Quantum Expert
john.donnely@dga-group.com

John has over 30 years' pre and post contract experience within the construction, engineering and power industries both in Australia and internationally. Extensive measurement and valuation experience in the commercial and contractual aspects of construction management has been acquired by working on a wide range of projects.

John Foster
Quantum & Delay Expert
john.foster@dga-group.com

John has over 40 years' experience in project commercial management and provides clients with strategic advice on construction delay, cost issues and risk management. He has frequently acted as Expert witness, given evidence and been cross-examined in major international arbitration and court cases.

David Waddle
Delay Expert
david.waddle@dga-group.com

David is a Construction Expert specialising in delay analysis and construction project management - including project turnaround and M&A - founded on 40+ years' practical experience. He has provided Expert Reports to the TCC, Court of Session, in arbitration and adjudication and has been cross-examined.

Mark Lucas
Quantum Expert
mark.lucas@dga-group.com

Mark has over 35 years' industry experience across most sectors of the built-environment both within the UK and overseas. He is an RICS accredited Quantum Expert in construction disputes and has testified and been cross-examined in various tribunals including the Technology and Construction Court.

Dominic Keene
Quantum Expert
dominic.keene@dga-group.com

Dominic has 15+ years of experience providing commercial and contractual advice, with a strong focus on resolving disputes. He has worked for employers, main contractors and supply chain organisations. As well as acting as lead expert assistant, he has been appointed Expert on multiple occasions.

Richard Lamb
Delay Expert
richard.lamb@dga-group.com

Richard has extensive dispute resolution experience. He is regularly acted as assistant to the Independent Expert in relation to EOT, delay, and disruption claims, as well as Expert on smaller disputes. He also has extensive project planning and planning management experience on major construction projects.

Tim Lunt
Quantum Expert
tim.lunt@dga-group.com

Tim has 35 years' experience delivering major and complex construction projects in the USA, UK, Europe, the Middle East and Asia. Trained and qualified as a Quantity Surveyor in the UK, he has acted as Expert witness, has given evidence and been cross-examined under oath at an international arbitration.